MARK BEYERS

HEAD COACH | 14th SEASON | ARMSTRONG ATLANTIC STATE | 1991

2010, 2012 ITA Southern Region Coach of the Year

He's won two national championships in Division II and led a team to the SEC West Championship. He's coached numerous All-Americans and All-SEC players. His teams are notorious for excellence in the classroom. Mark Beyers has accomplished a lot in 16 years as a head coach, and with five of the top six returning from last year's squad and a talented recruiting class, the Rebels are primed to make some noise nationally in 2015.

The Rebels made their sixth consecutive and 17th overall NCAA appearance in 2014 and advanced to the second round before falling to the eventual national champion, UCLA. Julia Jones earned All-SEC second team honors. Off the court, the Rebels earned the ITA All-Academic Team Award for the 18th straight year and Caroline Rohde-Moe was named to the CoSIDA Capital One Academic All-District Team.

Youth was the name of the game in 2013, as the Rebels did not feature a senior on the team and only two juniors. They earned the program's 16th overall NCAA appearance, and junior Caroline Rohde-Moe participated in the NCAA Singles Championship as well as earned All-SEC honors for the second time. Off the court, the Rebels were one of the best, earning an APR Public Recognition Award and leading all sports at Ole Miss with a 3.64 team GPA in the spring.

In 2012, the Rebels earned their fourth straight

NCAA appearance and a final national ranking of No. 18. It marked the third time in the last four years for the Rebels to end the year ranked in the Top 25. The Rebels (18-9) hosted the NCAA first and second rounds for the first time since 1999 and finished among the top four in the overall SEC standings for the second time in three years. The 18 wins are the most since the 1999 team posted 21. The Rebels also advanced to the National Team Indoor Final 16 for the first time since 2000. Kristi Boxx and Abby Guthrie earned All-America honors and were joined on the All-SEC team by Caroline Rohde-Moe and freshman Erin Stephens. Julia Jones made the All-Freshman team along with Stephens.

Beyers was named ITA Southern Region Coach of the Year for the second time in three years in 2012.

The Rebels enjoyed an excellent year in the classroom, earning the ITA All-Academic Team Award for the 16th consecutive time, while three players earned ITA Scholar-Athlete recognition. Gabby Rangel was a finalist for the SEC Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Postgraduate Scholarship and received a Taylor Medal (highest academic honor at University).

Despite dealing with injuries to key players in 2011, the Rebels earned their third straight NCAA bid. Kristi Boxx earned All-SEC first team honors for the third year in a row. Connor Vogel made the second team.

Off the court, the team received the ITA All-Academic Team Award as well as earning the Chancellor's Cup for the varsity team with the highest cumulative grade point average.

Ole Miss advanced to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen for the eighth time in 2010, captured the SEC West Championship and reached the SEC tournament semifinals for the second year in a row. The Rebels ended the year ranked No. 17 in the nation, posted their best finish in the SEC (2nd) since 1999 and their best league record (8-3) since 2000. Kristi Boxx and Karen Nijssen earned All-America honors, while Boxx was one of only nine players in the nation to earn the honor in both singles and doubles. Laura van de Stroet and Connor Vogel joined Boxx and Nijssen on the All-SEC team.

Academic success continued for the Rebels as they earned the Chancellor's Cup for the women's varsity squad with the highest cumulative grade point average. They also received the ITA All-Academic Team Award for the 14th time, while four players were named ITA Scholar-Athletes.

The Rebels ended the 2009 season ranked No. 21 in the nation and advanced to the NCAA second round. With three freshmen and two sophomores in the lineup, Ole Miss defeated five top 25 teams in league play and reached the semifinals of the SEC Tournament. Kristi Boxx and Karen Nijssen earned All-SEC honors and participated in the NCAA Doubles Championship. Boxx also made the singles championship.

Off the court, the Rebels earned the prestigious ITA All-Academic Team Award, and Gabby Rangel and Laura van de Stroet were named ITA Scholar-Athletes.

In 2008, Karen Nijssen earned All-SEC honors in her first year with the Rebels. She also teamed with Nika Koukhartchouk to participate in the NCAA Doubles Championships. The pair ended the year ranked No. 32 in the nation.

Off the court, Ole Miss garnered the ITA All-Academic Team Award for the 12th time. Two members of the team were named ITA Scholar-Athletes. For the first time ever, the team also earned the Chancellor's Cup for the highest grade point average among all women's varsity sports at Ole Miss. Preethi Subramanian was named to the Arthur Ashe Jr. Sports Scholars by the journal Diverse: Issues In Higher Education.

In 2007, senior Ilona Somers, earned All-SEC honors for the second year in a row, ended the year ranked No. 46 in the nation and qualified for the NCAA Singles Championship. In the classroom, Ole Miss received the ITA All-Academic Team Award. Four members of the team earned ITA Scholar-Athlete honors.

In 2006, Ole Miss boasted the SEC Co-Freshman of the Year, in addition to Ilona Somers making the All-SEC second team. Off the court, the Lady Rebels received the distinction of being named an ITA All-Academic team. Also, the entire starting lineup earned ITA Scholar-Athlete honors, believed to be not matched by any other squad in the country.

The 2005 season saw the Rebels capture the SEC Western Division Championship for the first time. In addition, the team made its 11th NCAA Championship appearance. Chloe Carlotti became the seventh All-American in the history of the program and joined an elite group of Division I players to earn that distinction at multiple schools. Carlotti and Virginia Tomatis earned All-SEC honors after going 8-3 in the league at No. 1 doubles.

The 2004 season saw the Lady Rebels narrowly miss making the NCAA Team Championships, but there were plenty of highlights to be noted. Chloe Carlotti and Virginia Tomatis teamed up to post an 8-3 record in the SEC at No. 1 doubles and earn All-SEC honors. Carlotti participated in the NCAA Championships in singles and teamed up with Tomatis in doubles. Off the court, the Lady Rebels were named an ITA All-Academic Team. Florencia Basile, Karem Harboe, Sabrina Pepl and Virginia Tomatis were named ITA Scholar-Athletes and to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

In 2003, current University of Wisconsin assistant coach Mira Radu completed an outstanding career by being named the NCAA Woman of the Year for the state of Mississippi.

Radu earned All-America honors for the second consecutive year as well as All-SEC accolades. Radu finished her senior year ranked No. 18 in the nation and reached the quarterfinals of the NCAA Singles Championships. The winner of the 2003 ITA South Region Cissie Leary Award for Sportsmanship, Radu became only the fourth Lady Rebel ever to record 100 wins for her career, finishing with a 108-52 career record. Radu was also the co-recipient of the Eugenia Conner Memorial Award, which is given to the most outstanding female athlete on the Ole Miss campus each spring.

Off the court in the 2003, the Lady Rebels earned the ITA All-Academic Team Award. Radu made the SEC Academic Honor Roll, and Florencia Basile, Karem Harboe and Virginia Tomatis were named ITA Scholar Athletes.

During his first season (2002) at the helm, Beyers guided the Lady Rebels to their seventh consecutive NCAA appearance and a final national ranking of No. 35. He also coached Mira Radu to All-America and All-SEC honors. Radu ended the year ranked among the top 20 singles players. Radu and 2002 graduate Camilla Gould earned the ITA Scholar-Athlete Award, while the squad was named an ITA All-Academic Team.

No stranger to women's tennis, Beyers, a native of Tilburg, Holland, spent three years (1992-95) as head coach of the women's tennis team at Armstrong Atlantic State in Georgia. During his three years, the team captured the NCAA Division II Championship, posted a 50-8 record and won the Peach Belt Conference each year. Beyers earned PBC Coach-of-the-Year honors in 1993, 1994 and 1995. In 1995, he received NCAA Division II South Regional Coach-of-the-Year honors. His teams ranked 10th, ninth and first respectively in the Division II national rankings.

Beyers came to Ole Miss in the fall of 1995 as the men's assistant coach. In his six years as an assistant coach with the Rebels, Ole Miss reached the final four twice (1997, 1999) and won three SEC titles (1996, 1997, 1999). In 1997, Beyers was the first recipient of the ITA Region III Assistant Coach-of-the-Year Award.

FOUR-TIME ALL-SEC FIRST TEAM

After a decorated career at Ole Miss, Mississippi native Kristi Boxx is in her second year as a volunteer assistant with the Rebels.

The Grenada, Miss., product etched her name in the record books at Ole Miss during an outstanding four-year career on the hard courts. She became just the second player in Ole Miss women's tennis history to earn All-SEC first team honors all four years and only the second player in program history to achieve 200 wins combined in singles and doubles.

Boxx was a two-time All-American in both singles and doubles, one of only a handful to accomplish the feat in both 2010 and 2012. An NCAA participant in singles and doubles all four years, Boxx ended her career ranked No. 17 in the nation in singles and No. 6 in doubles. Boxx achieved a top-10 final doubles ranking with two different partners in her career.

While playing No. 1 singles all four years, Boxx helped lead the Rebels to four consecutive NCAA appearances, including the Sweet Sixteen in 2010, as well as the SEC West Championship in 2010.

Boxx earned the No. 1 ranking in the ITA Southern Region, captured the ITA Southern Regional Singles title her senior year and was named the ITA Southern Region Senior of the Year in 2012.

Off the court, Boxx made the SEC Academic Honor Roll three times and was a regular on the University Honor Roll.

Boxx graduated from the University of Mississippi in 2012 with a degree in Dietetics and Nutrition. Since graduation, she has competed on the professional circuit. This summer she teamed up with her college doubles partner, Abby Guthrie to capture her first professional title in Egypt.

BEYOND THE BASELINE...

The Ole Miss women's tennis team prides itself on excellence in everything they do. For the 2014 team, it was another solid year on and off the court, under head coach Mark Beyers, who completed his 13th year leading the program. The Rebels made their sixth consecutive NCAA appearance and advanced to the second round before falling to eventual NCAA Champion UCLA, to finish the season ranked No. 28 in the final ITA National Rankings.

One of 11 SEC teams to make the NCAA field of 64, the Rebels finished 14-10 overall with no losses to teams outside the top 30, and played several top 10 teams very close, including having match points against No. 9 Texas A&M. They defeated Texas Tech 4-3 to reach the second round of the NAAs.

Junior Julia Jones earned All-SEC honors for the second time in her career, and finished the year ranked No. 100 in the nation in singles and No. 8 in the Southern Region. She led the Rebels with an overall record of 27-11, 16-7 in dual matches. Jones also posted a 15-6 doubles record with freshman Zalina Khairudinova.

The Rebels have had at least one member of the squad named to the All-SEC team every year under Coach Beyers (13 years).

Sophomore Mai El Kamash finished second on the team with 26 wins, while junior Erin Stephens ended the year on an 11-match winning streak.

"Maybe we didn't reach all of our goals, but all in all we had another solid season, making the second round of the NCAA Tournament, and finishing 28th in the country," head coach Mark Beyers said. "With a little bit of luck we could have won a few more matches and possibly finished a little higher. The Texas A&M match stands out; we had a couple of match points to clinch the win, but couldn't close it out."

The Rebels also picked up two ITA Southern Regional Awards, as senior Caroline Rohde-Moe was named the Most Improved Senior and associate head coach Jason Ontog received the Assistant Coach of the Year Award for the third time in five years.

Off the court, it was another outstanding year for the Rebels with Rohde-Moe leading the way. The Bloomerholm, Norway native graduated with honors, earning degrees in Managerial Finance and Economics. She received a Taylor Medal, awarded to the top one percent in each school at the University of Mississippi, and was a finalist for the SEC Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award. In addition, Rohde-Moe was named a Capital One Academic All-District honoree.

As a team, the Rebels posted a 3.47 grade point average, positioning themselves to earn the prestigious ITA All-Academic Team Award for a record 18th consecutive year. The entire team made the University Honor Roll, while Rohde-Moe posted a 4.0 GPA for the fourth straight semester.

PALOMA COLLANTES 1991, 1992, 1993, 1994

Paloma Collantes was arguably the best player in the history of the women's tennis program at Ole Miss. She became the first Rebel All-America in singles in 1991, her freshman year. That year, Collantes reached the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championships before losing to defending national champion Debbie Graham of Stanford 6-4, 4-6, 6-2.

The native of Miami, Fla., won the Riviera All-American Championships twice in her four-year career and was a four-time All-SEC selection. Collantes was also named the 1993 Mississippi Female Amateur Athlete of the Year.

Collantes participated in the NCAA's all four years of her career, advancing to the quarterfinals her junior year and the Final Four her senior year.

Also during her senior year, Collantes defeated the eventual NCAA Singles Champion, Angela Lettiere (6-4, 6-1) to capture the Rolex South Regional Singles title.

In December of 1992, Paloma achieved the distinction of being the first Ole Miss tennis player to ever be ranked No. 1 in the nation in singles by being selected No. 1 in the ITA National Women's Singles Rankings.

In 2000, Collantes became the first Ole Miss women's tennis player to be inducted into The University of Mississippi Athletic Hall of Fame.

Collantes resides in Miami and is a regional events director for Scratch Music Group.

PASCALE PIQUEMAL 1994

Pascale Piquemal enjoyed a fine career at Ole Miss both on the court and in the classroom. She participated in the NCAA Championships twice, teaming with Marie-Laure Bougnol to reach the semifinals in 1993 and the nationally-televised doubles finals in 1994. The duo advanced higher than any Rebel in the history of the program. Bougnol and Piquemal completed the year ranked ninth nationally.

A two-time All-SEC honoree, Piquemal posted a 63-39 singles record and 38-20 doubles mark in four years.

Throughout her career, Piquemal had several impressive upset wins over nationally-ranked opponents, including defeating the nation's second ranked player in 1993, Kelly Pace of Texas, at the All-American Championships.

Piquemal earned All-SEC Academic honors three years and was a member of the Chancellor's Honor Roll. She graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Engineering (computer science). For her outstanding accomplishments on the court, in the classroom and her involvement in the community, Piquemal was awarded the "Winning For Life" Scholarship sponsored jointly by Entergy Corporation and the NCAA Foundation. The "Winning For Life" program honors the top male and female scholar-athletes for each state, and from there, the top male and female student-athlete from Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas and Southeast Texas. Piquemal received a $2,000 post-graduate scholarship and used it to attend graduate school in France where she completed her master's degree in Business Administration.

MARIE-LAURE BOUGNOL 1993, 1994, 1996

Marie-Laure Bougnol enjoyed success at Ole Miss both on the court and off the court. The native of Marseille, France, earned All-America honors three times in four years. Bougnol advanced to the NCAA Championship in each of her four years, most notably teaming with Pascale Piquemal to reach the doubles semifinals her freshman year and the nationally-televised doubles final in her sophomore season. She was in the national rankings every year in both singles and doubles and steadily climbed into the top 15. As a freshman, Bougnol earned ITA South Region Rookie of the Year honors.

In 1993, Bougnol won her first grand slam title by capturing the SkyTel National Clay Court Championships in Jackson, Miss. She reached the finals again in 1994.

A three-time All-Southeastern Conference selection, Bougnol also reached the semifinals of the Rolex South Regional Championships twice and won the 1992 SEC Fall Coaches' Classic, giving her the title of SEC Individual Champion for the season.

Twice, Bougnol received the ITA Tennis Match Magazine Rolex South Region Arthur Ashe Jr. Sportsmanship and Leadership Award and was a finalist for the national award in 1995. Her senior year, Bougnol was the recipient of the Eugenia Conner Award for the Most Outstanding Female Student-Athlete at the University of Mississippi. She was the first tennis player to receive this award. Bougnol has also been a star in the classroom, being named to the All-SEC Academic team three times and the Dean's Honor Roll and the Chancellor's Honor Roll. In 1996 she was named to the GTE/CoSIDA District VI Academic All-America Team for her academic accomplishments, and Bougnol received an NCAA $5,000 post-graduate scholarship.

Bougnol completed her doctoral degree at the University of Mississippi and became the second Rebel women's tennis player to be inducted into the Ole Miss Athletic Hall of Fame, joining in 2003.
